

eFiling has arrived

A few things you need to know:

Who can eFile?

Any member of the Georgia State Bar can register at no cost.

What can I eFile?

You can initiate and file into General Civil and Domestic Relations cases.

When can I eFile?

PeachCourt is open 24/7. No more rushing to beat a 5 PM deadline.

Where can I eFile?

You can file in State and Superior Courts across Georgia. Visit PeachCourt.com to see the list.

Why would I eFile?

You can avoid printing, mailing, driving, parking and standing in line. eFiling saves time and money. Why would you NOT eFile?

How and when do I pay?

You pay all fees when you submit the filing. Pay with your choice of Visa, Discover, MasterCard or bank draft.

Is eFiling mandatory?

No. The choice is up to each attorney. If opposing counsel chooses to file on paper, you can still eFile!

Do I get stamped copies?

Yes! After the clerk accepts your filing, you will receive a file stamped copy of each document at no additional cost.

What about eService?

For $3, PeachCourt can email file stamped copies of each document to any number of service recipients.

Can I get help with forms?

Yes! PeachCourt creates these for you automagically: Case Initiation Form, Summons and Sheriff's Entry of Service.

PeachCourt saves time and money. Register and eFile Today!
